

Aldeen Foundation

Invites You to Attend

The Eighteenth Annual Teacher Development Workshops 2008-2009

Third Session

Monday, November 10, 2008 - 8:30 AM to 1:00 PM

Topic

Differentiating Instruction to Meet the Educational and Disciplinary Needs

- What is differentiated instruction and why it is necessary?
- Established the essential understanding vs. the ‘wouldn’t it be nice’ curriculum.
- Examples of differentiated instruction in language arts, science, social studies, foreign language, and mathematics.
- Implementing differentiated instruction in a year-long teaching plan.

Presented by: Scott Purdy
Write Time Publishing

Location

Aldeen Foundation Auditorium - New Horizon Middle School
651 Orange Grove Blvd, Pasadena, CA 91103

Registration Deadline: Thursday, November 6, 2008

To register, please email your name, school and number of Attendees to AldeenFoundation@aol.com

For inquiries call Shahida Alikhan at (213) 480-3145.

Please be on time. Sign in and be in your seats by 8:15 A.M.

Bring your folders – Handouts will be given.

Please note that NO babysitting is available.