

Arabic Teachers' professional Development

Online Education 2013

Spring session: March 4th TO April 15th 2013

Aldeen Foundation is pleased with the great response from educators worldwide to our Online Arabic Training Courses. Due to the high demand we are proud to be offering a second session of the six weeks online course:

The 5c's in action

Best practices in the Arabic language classroom

Join our spring course and attend online live classes to learn how to:

- Incorporate the 5C's in your classroom
- Practice and teach Communication and Culture
- Connect the Arabic language to other topics of interest to your students
- Help your students compare the Arabic language and culture with their native language and culture
- Enable your students to use the Arabic language in authentic community settings
- Bring best practices alive in your classroom
- Network and build long-lasting professional connections with Arabic instructors worldwide.
- Spend about 90 minutes per week, listening to lectures, taking multiple choice quizzes and networking with experts and colleagues.

Access the online sessions when it is convenient for you
