

ALDEEN FOUNDATION

Welcomes you to the

Arabic Teacher Development Workshops 2010-2011

The online course starts October 4

This year Aldeen foundation will conduct online workshops to:

- Increase your professionalism in Arabic instruction
- Develop your understanding in content-based instruction in the Arabic Language
- Opportunity to interact with Arabic language educators from around the country.
- Gain a new vision on Arabic language instructional approaches
- Network, collaborate, and build long-lasting professional connections with Arabic instructors all across the USA
- Work towards earning Arabic teaching credentials

Access the online sessions from your convenient environment, no driving, no freeways, no travelling and no hassle.

Participants will attend once a week online session

You will have ample of time to grow in your profession

The online sessions includes lectures from distinguished experts in the field of Arabic Teaching

Teaching Arabic through Content Based Instructions (CBI) includes:

- Introduction to Content-Based foreign language Instruction.
- Content Based Instruction of Arabic, an applied approach.
- Using Quran and Islamic Studies in teaching Arabic
- Using literature for content-based instruction.
- Level of language study.
- Morphology.
- Eloquence.
- Grammar
- Content based instruction and teaching standards/ACTFL standards.
- Children literature and CBI
- Formative Assessment and CBI.

REGISTRATION DEADLINE: August 15, 2010

REGISTRATION FEES: $100 PER TEACHER

Schools Registration Fee: 4 teachers or more $400 only

Register online at www.aldeenfoundation.org

For further information and application materials, please visit our website at www.aldeenfoundation.org or contact our office at 626.577.2199

